Short-term assignments for Education Professionals in Kenya

A meaningful way to spend a Sabbatical or a Time Out

In Kenya, Comundo aims to provide children and young people with better professional and social prospects by developing relevant skills through quality and inclusive education and training. Our country program contributes to an improved learning environment for children and youth at all levels of education.

We offer education professionals interested in spending 3-4 months abroad a structured and guided opportunity to make their technical know-how and experience available to an educational facility or organisation working in the education sector in Kenya.
